ISSUE NO. 4 - HONEYMOON 2014

A GATSBY-APPROVED GOWN

Carrie set hearts aflutter in her dramatically fluted floral French lace gown by Ulla-Maija Couture.

Carrie's bouquet was a soft mix of romantic white ranunculus, roses and parrot tulips.

MAID IN MINT

After sifting through a number of different fabric types and colors, Carrie and her mom worked with L'euu out of Beverly Hills and designed custom gowns for her bridesmaids. Each included a personalized embroidered tag with their initials and the wedding date.

THE CORAL CASINO, the location of the reception, is a special place for Lane and I. It's an old club, founded in 1937, and is unique to California because it is located directly on the beach. We wanted to capture that era in our reception and tried to infuse A VINTAGE SANTA BARBARA GLAMOUR theme with the décor and music.

-THE BRIDE

SWANKY STYLE Wedding planner & designer, Alexandra Kolendrianos, fashioned the reception with regal shades of white, cream and gold, leaving the cranberry-colored tulip and rose arrangements to impart the majority of the color.

A LITTLE SPARKLE TO START THE DAY
LANE LEFT A PRESENT FOR ME
TO SHARE WITH MY BRIDESMAIDS
— it was vintage rosé champagne that I love very much.

A FOREVER KIND OF MOMENT
We were on a wine tasting trip with work colleagues on the Central Coast of California. On the return trip, after half a dozen wineries, Lane asked me:

When are you going to fall in love with me?
— Carrie

WELCOME BAG INSPIRATION The couple welcomed guests to Santa Barbara with branded totes designed by Lazaro Press. Each tote came complete with a medal charm signifying recognition of the people that earned sainthood in the Catholic faith for leading lives that exemplify Christ's teachings, a map of Santa Barbara, and symbolic treats from their hometowns of San Angelo, Texas and Bakersfield, California.

Once upon a time
IN A LAND JUST ABOVE MALIBU, THERE WAS A WEDDING CEREMONY LIKE NONE OTHER... WHERE HEAVENLY GARDENS, LUSH FLORALS, WHIMSICAL ACCENTS, AND AN EXQUISITE COUPLE WOULD COME TOGETHER TO VOW THEIR LOVE ETERNALLY.

A MIDSUMMER

WE MET AT A WEDDING!

A friend said... 'You have a connection with that guy.' I said, 'Don't be silly, he's ginger!' -The Bride

BOUQUET BREAKDOWN Deborah had a single rose bouquet designed by Los Angeles-based florist, Mark's Garden. Made to match her dress, the beautiful bloom was a fresh look to the classic cluster.

STARRY NIGHTS A custom tent was constructed with three large sky openings to view the beautiful stars that night.

MIRROR, MIRROR As a surprise gift to the couple, wedding planner Mindy Weiss had their vows written out on lifesize mirrors placed at the entrance of the reception tent.

CHAIR CHIC The ethereal ceremony was lined with a mix of vineyard chairs and chiavari chairs - some which were slipped in a gorgeous array of sheer white covers from Revelry Event Design.

I always wanted to get married in my grandparents' secret garden, surrounded by fairies. My wedding planner, Mindy Weiss, knew exactly what I had in mind, creating it perfectly. We had a wishing well, a magic gift tree, chandeliers, and hopefully real life fairies! -THE BRIDE

THEY WANTED THE ENTIRE DAY TO FEEL

very whimsical

WE TRIED TO HAVE LITTLE SURPRISES AROUND EACH CORNER AND THROUGHOUT THE PROPERTY.

Cheers
DEBORAH AND BRANDON!

WISH THEM WELL
If you can dream it, Mindy Weiss Party Consultants can do it! They sourced a vintage wishing well where guests could leave heartfelt wishes to the couple in the wooden well bucket.
