

MODERN LUXURY

Brides

CALIFORNIA

EVER AFTER

GLAM GOWNS!

ALLURING NEW LOOKS FROM VERA WANG, CAROLINA HERRERA, MONIQUE LHUILLIER AND MORE

OUT-OF-THE-BOX INVITES

Set a Stylish New Standard

Present-Minded: Kelly Wearstler Reveals Her Top Registry Picks

VINTAGE VENUES: INSPIRING WEDDING SETTINGS AT HISTORIC CALIFORNIA HOTELS

PLUS

AISLE TO ISLES: A Blissful Island-Hopping Honeymoon in the South Pacific

Unforgettable Happily Ever After begins here

PUBLISHERS OF ANGELENO, RIVIERA GRANDE COUNTY, RIVIERA SAN DIEGO AND SAN FRANCISCO MAGAZINES

TAP FOR MORE ▶

#2

RACHEL SHAMES & GABE WATERMAN

November 23, 2013
Photography by Amy & Stuart Photography

WHY WE LOVE IT

"Rachel's mother is one of my closest friends," says celebrity party planner Mindy Weiss. "I was at the hospital when Rachel was born! It was very exciting to plan their wedding."

THE VENUE

The Four Seasons Los Angeles was a natural choice for the L.A. couple. The garden ceremony was officiated by two rabbis and a cantor, while a chandelier-lit ballroom hosted the 220-guest reception.

THE DETAILS

Mark's Garden designed the flowers; a string quartet and a 14-piece band performed; and the bride's aunts commissioned a painting of the reception by artist Timree.

FAMILY MATTERS

The promenade hosted cocktails: "There were so many unique touches," notes Weiss. "Rachel's father even collected vintage perfume bottles for flowers."

LOVE BLOOMS
"Their look was vintage and romantic," says wedding planner Mindy Weiss. Rachel carried an all-white bouquet.

HAPPY TIRRS
The Four Seasons-made cake is chocolate with mocha mousse and yellow with vanilla bean mousse) displays a family topper.

WEDDED BLISS
From the flower-draped chuppah, the bride (in a Monique Lhuillier gown) and groom made their way down the aisle.

